

December 2004 special issue, Vol. 18 (4), Gregory Bateson: A Sign.

Guest Editor: Deborah Eicher-Catt

A partial list of contributors include:

- Mary Catherine Bateson, "Daddy, Can a Scientist be Wise?"
- James A. Anderson & Janet Colvin, "An Ecology of Communication: An Acknowledgement of Gregory Bateson"
- Corey Anton, "Playing with Bateson: Denotation, Logical Types, and Analog and Digital Communication"
- Deborah Eicher-Catt, "Bateson, Peirce, and the Sign of the Sacred"
- Peter Harries-Jones, "Consciousness, Embodiment and Critique of Phenomenology in the Thought of Gregory Bateson"
- Alexander Kozin, "The Sign of Love: Gregory Bateson and the Family Therapy Paradigm"
- Klaus Krippendorf, "The Social Reality of Meaning"
- Yair Neuman, "The Logic of Meaning-in-Context"
- Paul Ryan, "Bateson, Peirce, and the Three-Person Solution"
- Marian Zielinski, "Habit, Memory, Perception and Visual Pattern: A Phenomenology of Form and Ornament as a Reflection of the Human Condition"

Single issue price is US$30 (postage included). Prepaid orders can be placed at any time.

Contact:

Richard Lanigan, Editor

The American Journal of SEMIOTICS

Ref: Bateson Issue Preorder

Southern Illinois University at Carbondale

Dept. of Speech Communication, Mailcode 6605

Carbondale, IL 62901-6605 USA